

Frontier Quest

American Exhibit

Yes you guessed it! This is a frying pan! But it is not like the frying pans we have today. What is different about this one? This frying pan has a special name.....can figure it out?

Where would you find this tool? One hint, look near the fireplace! Ask the lady of the house what this is, and what it is called.

This is a Dutch oven. What was cooked in this and how?

What are these? Who would use these on the farm, and how would they be used?
